

Welcome to another RDX Workshop

EXCHANGE THE GREATNESS!!!

RDX Objectives:

- Provide forum for professional discourse
- Promote integration of regional data libraries
- Promote integrated and distributed web access
- Promote development and implementation of multi-jurisdictional data exchange agreements

Past RDX Events:

- July 2003 RDX Workshop – Ann Arbor, MI
- October 2004 RDX Conference – Detroit, MI
“Decision Support for the Great Lakes – St. Lawrence System for the New Millennium”
- April 2005 Workshop – Chicago, IL
“Land Use / Land Cover Mapping Coordination”
- November 2005 Workshop – Chicago, IL
“Distributed Web Mapping for the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River Basin”
- October 2006 Workshop – Sioux Falls, SD
“Distributed Image Catalogues for the Great Lakes”
- October 2007 Conference – Ottawa, Canada
“Sharing Common Resources”
- May 2008 – Chicago, IL and Buffalo, NY
“Coastal Data Model”

Future RDX Events:

➤ October 2008 Workshop – Toledo, OH

“Digital Rights Management and Other Legal Issues”

➤ April 2009 Conference – Madison, WI

“Changing Climate – Improved Knowledge, Enhanced Adaptation”

Chicago May 08 RDX Highlights:

- Goal is to define a consistent coastal data model for all eight Great Lakes states and the provinces of Ontario and Quebec
- Foster utilization of open source technologies and data standards
- Promote full implementation of RAMONA and image catalogues

